

FLYING ACE DISTILLERY WINS DOUBLE GOLD AND SILVER AT THE 2021 NORTH AMERICAN BOURBON AND WHISKEY COMPETITION

LOVETTSVILLE, VIRGINIA (August 28, 2021) – Flying Ace Distillery Blended Bourbon Cask Proof was awarded Double Gold. Flying Ace Distillery Blended Bourbon at 90 proof was awarded Silver.

The Tasting Awards were held over 3 days of intense blind tastings by a panel of respected and experienced industry professionals. Competition Judges cast their votes for the best spirit entries in more than 64 different categories. They awarded medals for first, second and third place for each qualifying category and best of show. Competition management then reviewed all judge's scores to determine additional awards and citations for Double Gold and Best of Show. These awards are based on the highest score ratings achieved!

This year, the annual North American Bourbon and Whiskey Competition received 48% more entries than in years past.

“We are honored to accept these awards at this year’s North American Bourbon and Whiskey Competition, says Greg Moore, master distiller at Flying Ace Distillery, “This was a team effort. We are all extremely proud of the awards and are excited to make Flying Ace Farm and the agricultural bounty Loudoun County, Virginia has to offer a major player in the nationwide bourbon distillery landscape.”.
